

Mustangs Seek Second Victory in Livonia Test

Coach Mike McMullin and his Dansville High Mustangs will take their football show on the road Saturday.

The team, which opened with a convincing 26-13 victory over Avon at home last week, will continue in the Livingston Conference Division One wars at Livonia. Kickoff is set for 1:30 p.m.

Steady rain didn't dampen the DCHS attitude in the Avon opener as the winners ran for 164 yards and passed for another 64 in dominating the second half to break open a tight struggle.

The Mustangs opened the scoring early in the first period when Avon fumbled on its 15. Brad West scooped up the bouncing ball and went into the end zone untouched. Avon tied it in the second quarter when quarterback Ron Smith broke loose on a 17-yard scamper which climaxed a 50-yard drive.

The visitors scored again in the third period and Smith booted the point but that was all as Dansville's defense took control while the offense went to work.

Quarterback Dave Hamsher didn't let the wet conditions bother him as he hooked up on a long completion to end Bob Mahus which set up Chad West's 20-yard touchdown romp. Still in the third period, Hamsher climaxed a Dansville drive with a 20-yard toss to Mahus who hit the end zone just as he pulled in the ball. After this score, Hamsher added two points on a keeper and it was 20-13. Midway through the fourth quarter, Chad West broke loose again on a TD run, this one covering 10 yards.

The defense contained Avon to 118 yards on the ground and 15 in the air and ran up 16 first downs to six for the visiting Green and White squad. Hamsher completed six of his 12 aerials and was intercepted once. Avon's Smith completed four of 12 for only 15 yards and Brad West picked off one of his tosses.

Chad West ran for 85 yards and Hamsher 71 in leading the ground attack. For the night, Mahus caught four passes while Brad West and Ken Heiman each had a reception.

Brad West, in addition to his touchdown fumble recovery and interception, led the defenders with seven solo tackles and five assists. Right behind him were Jim Fox with six and two, Heiman with six solos, and Chad West with four and one. Credited with two solos each were Tom Acomb, Corey Davis, Mike Crowell, Hamsher, Jim King and Mahus. In addition, Davis and King each had three assists. Coach McMullin also credited tackle Roy Alford with a strong defensive performance.

Lombardi Team Defeats Cal-Mum

Dansville's Vince Lombardi League teams won one and lost two in games against Caledonia-Mumford Sunday.

Coach Bill Blake's "A" squad romped to a 38-0 victory. Chris Kreiley scored the first touchdown in the second quarter and a few minutes later Rich Derrenbacher found the end zone. Kevin Chizuk made a two-point conversion on a quarterback sneak and a 14-0 lead.

After Derrenbacher came up with an interception, Chizuk ran for a third TD, Chris Faulds went over for the extra point and Dansville had a 22-0 halftime lead. In the third period, Todd Snyder scored and Neal Weidman gained the two points. Kreiley scored another touchdown and Faulds ran in for the points to reach the 38-point level. Coach Blake cited Chizuk, Kreiley, Derrenbacher, Snyder and Faulds for outstanding performances and saluted the work of the entire defensive line.

In the "B" contest, Coach Charlie Hagan's team fell 14-6 to the Cal-Mum squad. Dansville scored in the opening quarter when quarterback Zach Meyer connected on a 25-yard pass to Dylan Penta who reached another 20 yards for the TD. The conversion attempt failed.

Cal-Mum came back with two touchdowns and one conversion for the margin. Coach Hagan commended the defense for a "fine job" on holding Cal-Mum scoreless in the second half.

Coach Bob Penta's "C" team dropped an 18-14 game to Cal-Mum. In the first quarter, Shawn Schledorn put Dansville on the board with a 51-yard run but the point try was no good. Cal-Mum scored three touchdowns in the first half. In the third quarter, Dansville scored on a safety and Brian Quinlan hit the end zone on a quarterback keeper to bring the team within four points. Coach Penta praised the defensive unit for a "job well done" in the second half when Dansville held Cal-Mum scoreless.

AIR ROUTE — Dansville quarterback Dave Hamsher gets protection and sets up to pass in action against Avon Friday night at Ralph Clements Field. The Avon rusher (No. 35) is Frank Mazkiewicz.

Athlete of the Week

Outstanding performance in game conditions have brought Athlete of the Week salutes to three Dansville High students.

In football, Chad West earned the nod in the victory over Avon. He carried the ball 19 times for 85 yards, scored two touchdowns and had five tackles in helping to shut down the opponents' attack.

Myra Kemp gained the honor in girls' soccer as the team dropped games to Pavilion and Honeoye Falls-Lima. She played outstanding defense and, as co-captain, provided leadership in the early season.

For the volleyball team, Naomi Young was selected on the basis of outstanding back-row defense and serving many points. The team registered three wins in its own tournament.

"I was tired of living in a tent."

"At 256 pounds, the only thing I could wear was a tent dress. I was so depressed! Then my doctor sent me to Diet Center. That's where I met Merrelly. She's more than a counselor, she's a very good friend. With her help, I learned how to eat nutritious meals while the fat on my body just melted away. In fourteen months I lost 126 pounds and 126 inches. My health problems disappeared too. Now I have a whole new wardrobe and I feel great."
